

INSPIRED BY

CIVILISATIONS

ART IN SOMERSET FROM THE NORMANS TILL NOW

TUESDAY 6 MARCH 7.00 PM – 8.30 PM

Join Tom Mayberry, Chief Executive of the South West Heritage Trust, for a journey through time, exploring the art that Somerset has hosted or inspired over the centuries. £9.50 including a glass of wine and nibbles. Booking required on 01458 831197.

At Somerset Rural Life Museum, Glastonbury, BA6 8DB

THE BUILDINGS OF SOMERSET - REVISING PEVSNER, A LECTURE BY JULIAN ORBACH

THURSDAY 8 MARCH 7.30 PM

Join Julian Orbach, author and lecturer in architectural history, for a talk about his project to revise Pevsner's volume on South and West Somerset in the Buildings of England series. £9.50, booking advised on 01823 255088.

At The Museum of Somerset, Taunton, TA1 4AA

TALK AND TEA RESEARCH YOUR HOUSE HISTORY

FRIDAY 9 MARCH 2.30 PM

Join Esther Hoyle from Somerset Archives to discover some of the sources available for house history research in the archives and learn what information may be found there. Followed by tea and cake. £5, booking advised on 01823 255088.

At The Museum of Somerset, Taunton, TA1 4AA

Civilisations is an epic new BBC series spanning 31 countries on six continents, and covering more than 500 works of art. Alongside, the Civilisations Festival will bring heritage to life with events taking place in museums across the UK.

swheritage.org.uk #SWHTdiscovery

bbc.co.uk/civilisations

